

Horse-stealers. 181

David Lloyd and Catherine Lloyd.

Reward for apprehending them.

WHEREAS several Horses, Mares, and Geldings, have of late been feloniously Stolen, and taken away, from out of the County of Carmarthen; and divers other Frauds, Depredations, and Felonies committed therein, by David Lloyd, formerly of the Town of Swansea, in the County of Glamorgan, and now or late of Rotheram, in the County of York, Pen-knife Cutler; and Catherine Lloyd Widow of Richard Lloyd, and Mother to the said David Lloyd, and late also of the said Town of Swansea, A Reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered for the Taking and Apprehending of each of the Persons above named, over and above what they shall be intitled to by Act of Parliament, to be paid by the Treasurer of the said County of Carmarthen, immediately on producing to the Clerk of the Peace of the said County, a Certificate under the Hand of any one Gaoler, and authenticated upon Oath before any one Magistrate of the County or Town to which such Gaoler belongs; that the said David Lloyd, and Catherine Lloyd, or either of them, is or are safely lodged or secured in such Gaol.

It is supposed that Catherine Lloyd is under Sentence of Death in the County of Brecon; that she broke Gaol there, and that there is a Reward for apprehending her.

David Lloyd is about Twenty-two Years of Age, rather short, and pitted a little with the small Pox, speaks thick and rather fast.

Catherine Lloyd is about Forty Years of Age, rather above the middle Size, pale Complexion; speaks broken English with a Welsh Accent.

By ORDER of the Court of Quarter Sessions,

LLWYD, Clerk of the Peace.
